

W. W. GATES, Editor.
J. H. WILSON, Editor.
JACKSON, SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1872.

Seventh Congressional District.
We are authorized to announce Gen. J. D. Atkins, of Henderson, as a candidate to represent the 7th District in the next Congress of the United States. Election first Thursday in November next.

For Congress.
We are authorized to announce Gen. A. W. Campbell, of this city, a candidate to represent the 9th Congressional District in the next Congress. Election November 1st. Subject to Democratic Convention. Democratic papers throughout the District are requested to copy the above and send full to this office.

For Senator.
We are authorized to announce H. M. Clark, Jr., of Henderson, as a candidate for Senator from the counties of Haywood, Madison and Harlan. Election first Thursday in November next.

STATE NEWS.
There are fourteen candidates for tax collector in Maury county.

Two mad dogs were killed near Shelbyville last week.

J. A. McCall, who represented O'Brien county in the last legislature, is a candidate for the State Senate.

G. W. Kinzer is a candidate to represent Maury county in the next legislature.

Gen. Tom. Benton Smith is announced as a candidate for representative from Williamson county.

Bishop Feehan dedicated the new Catholic Church at Lawrenceburg on the 19th of May.

J. R. McCall and Holmes Cummins are candidates for the legislature from Tipton county.

Col. J. M. Crews, of Memphis, is a candidate for State Senator from Shelby and Fayette counties.

Dr. L. D. King, a distinguished educator, died at his home at Clarksville last Tuesday, aged seventy-five years.

Wm. B. King, Esq., died at his residence, near Tripp, Williamson county, May 21st, of paralysis, in the fifty-third year of age.

Mr. W. L. Hodge died suddenly of hemorrhage of the lungs, at the residence of Harry Trevathan, of Henry county, last week.

Dr. George A. Mathes, one of the editors of the Somerville Falcon, is a candidate for Senator from the counties of Shelby and Madison.

Col. James White is announced as a candidate for the State Senate from the counties of Sullivan, Hawkins, Hancock and Hamilton.

The Athens Post says: What on the South side of McMinn county generally looks like a fine crop of corn is suffering for want of rain.

Col. James W. Gillespie, of Rhea county, is called on to become a candidate for Congress in the second district.

Mr. James Green, one of the oldest citizens of Bedford county, and a soldier of 1812, died at his home in Bedford county two weeks ago.

A horse thief named Jordan Riddy—an old convict—was recently sent to Lawrence county upon a stolen horse.

Covington has a dog law very similar to that of our city. Let the work of killing go with an even jaw.

Col. L. P. McMurry and Dr. J. L. Jarrell are announced as candidates for the legislature from Gibson county.

A colored church in Trenton has just introduced a new organ, and the Gazette learns they make good music on it.

Alexander Coleman, living three miles North of Hamilton, died of misfortune to lose his stables and crib, and all their contents, by fire on the 17th ult.

Edward H. East, Sr., father of Chancellor East of Nashville, at last accounts was lying dangerously ill, at his home near Nashville. He is in his eighty-fifth year.

Jo Weems, of Bon Aqua Springs, Hickman county, has a peach tree over thirty years old, which has borne fruit for thirty years, and is three feet eight inches in circumference.

Mrs. Mary A. Craighead, widow of the late David Craighead, of Nashville, died in this city a few days since, at the age of eighty-four years.

The engines and rolling stock for the Memphis and Raleigh narrow gauge railroad have been ordered, and the road will be opened on the 4th of July, for regular travel.

A fountain head correspondent of the Galatin Examiner writes that Julius A. Tronstad, who represented Sumner county with so much ability in the late Legislature, has become a candidate for re-election.

The Methodist church at Franklin, which has remained in an unimpaired condition for many years, is to be completed at once; the necessary funds are already in hand for that purpose.

Col. W. S. McLemore, of Franklin, Hon. T. M. Jones, of Pulaski, and Arch. A. Hughes, of Columbia, are candidates for Judge of the Criminal Court of Williamson, Marshall, Maury and Giles counties.

The Bishops of the Methodist Church South, in session at Nashville, a week or two ago, set aside a week from the business of the convention as a week of Prayer throughout their denomination.

The Trenton News learns that the reported death of a person out of seven, in one family, from eating fish which had eaten caterpillars, is utterly untrue, no such thing having occurred.

A Mr. Patton, living near Milan, last week put his little nine-year old boy in a small boat, and went out to ride to the house, himself walking behind, when the little fellow, being frightened, fell overboard, and became entangled in the gear, and was killed.

The Trenton News learns that a larger amount of cotton is being cultivated in that county, than formerly, and that the yield of land sown in grain is greater by far than heretofore. The negroes are working admirably.

A "jour" printer, employed by the Troy Times—over in Ohio—left that ancient town "between sun down and sun rise," taking with him the editor's best clothes, pipe and gold pen. We can believe the story about the best clothes and the pipe, but that gold pen is a little too good to be true.

The Trenton Gazette learns that five persons, out of a family of seven, who resided in the Skull Bone neighborhood, have died from eating fish that had been feeding upon caterpillars. We also learn that a cat and two dogs were also eaten by caterpillars and died in less than two hours.

A man working on the farm of Mr. Coward, near Randolph, Tipton county, met a horrible death on the 15th ult. who was killed by a dog, and took his horse from the plow with harness on, mounted him and started to the well, and when he threw him, his feet became entangled in the harness, and he was killed by the dog, and the dog was killed by the man's hand. The dog was killed by the man's hand, and the man was killed by the dog's teeth.

The controversy between Rutherford and Bedford counties as to which was entitled to furnish the first Senator under the new apportionment, has been settled in favor of Rutherford county, and that gentleman, whole-hearted gentleman, Maj. D. H. C. Spence—of that county—already the Senator from that district.

ENTERPRISE.
Our neighbor of the Platender announces in our columns this week, that the subscription for the Weekly Enterprise be placed at One Dollar a Year. The Weekly Platender, at this figure is certainly cheap enough.

UNION PRAYER MEETING.—There will be held at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in this city, Tuesday evening next, June 4th, a Union Prayer Meeting. The ministers and people of other congregations are cordially invited to attend. The ministers have agreed to attend.

FOUND.—Last Sunday in Jackson, a large Silver Key, with the name of "Tom Harris" engraved on it. The owner can get it by calling at this office, and paying for this notice.

NEW PATENT.—Mr. J. A. Brooks, in the Western portion of Madison county, has discovered a new and, as it appears to us a most excellent article of domestic use—a chum dasher. He will soon take means to make his virtues known to the public through these columns.

BEERSHEBA SPRINGS.—By reference to another column, the prices of board and other interesting facts connected with the celebrated Beersheba Springs, may be noted. The fame of these waters is equally well known to the people of our country, and the popularity of the accommodations and the beauty of the grounds.

Col. J. M. Crews, of Memphis, is a candidate for State Senator from Shelby and Fayette counties.

Dr. L. D. King, a distinguished educator, died at his home at Clarksville last Tuesday, aged seventy-five years.

Wm. B. King, Esq., died at his residence, near Tripp, Williamson county, May 21st, of paralysis, in the fifty-third year of age.

Mr. W. L. Hodge died suddenly of hemorrhage of the lungs, at the residence of Harry Trevathan, of Henry county, last week.

Dr. George A. Mathes, one of the editors of the Somerville Falcon, is a candidate for Senator from the counties of Shelby and Madison.

Col. James White is announced as a candidate for the State Senate from the counties of Sullivan, Hawkins, Hancock and Hamilton.

The Athens Post says: What on the South side of McMinn county generally looks like a fine crop of corn is suffering for want of rain.

Col. James W. Gillespie, of Rhea county, is called on to become a candidate for Congress in the second district.

Mr. James Green, one of the oldest citizens of Bedford county, and a soldier of 1812, died at his home in Bedford county two weeks ago.

A horse thief named Jordan Riddy—an old convict—was recently sent to Lawrence county upon a stolen horse.

Covington has a dog law very similar to that of our city. Let the work of killing go with an even jaw.

Col. L. P. McMurry and Dr. J. L. Jarrell are announced as candidates for the legislature from Gibson county.

A colored church in Trenton has just introduced a new organ, and the Gazette learns they make good music on it.

Alexander Coleman, living three miles North of Hamilton, died of misfortune to lose his stables and crib, and all their contents, by fire on the 17th ult.

Edward H. East, Sr., father of Chancellor East of Nashville, at last accounts was lying dangerously ill, at his home near Nashville. He is in his eighty-fifth year.

Jo Weems, of Bon Aqua Springs, Hickman county, has a peach tree over thirty years old, which has borne fruit for thirty years, and is three feet eight inches in circumference.

Mrs. Mary A. Craighead, widow of the late David Craighead, of Nashville, died in this city a few days since, at the age of eighty-four years.

The engines and rolling stock for the Memphis and Raleigh narrow gauge railroad have been ordered, and the road will be opened on the 4th of July, for regular travel.

A fountain head correspondent of the Galatin Examiner writes that Julius A. Tronstad, who represented Sumner county with so much ability in the late Legislature, has become a candidate for re-election.

The Methodist church at Franklin, which has remained in an unimpaired condition for many years, is to be completed at once; the necessary funds are already in hand for that purpose.

Col. W. S. McLemore, of Franklin, Hon. T. M. Jones, of Pulaski, and Arch. A. Hughes, of Columbia, are candidates for Judge of the Criminal Court of Williamson, Marshall, Maury and Giles counties.

The Bishops of the Methodist Church South, in session at Nashville, a week or two ago, set aside a week from the business of the convention as a week of Prayer throughout their denomination.

The Trenton News learns that the reported death of a person out of seven, in one family, from eating fish which had eaten caterpillars, is utterly untrue, no such thing having occurred.

A Mr. Patton, living near Milan, last week put his little nine-year old boy in a small boat, and went out to ride to the house, himself walking behind, when the little fellow, being frightened, fell overboard, and became entangled in the gear, and was killed.

The Trenton News learns that a larger amount of cotton is being cultivated in that county, than formerly, and that the yield of land sown in grain is greater by far than heretofore. The negroes are working admirably.

A "jour" printer, employed by the Troy Times—over in Ohio—left that ancient town "between sun down and sun rise," taking with him the editor's best clothes, pipe and gold pen. We can believe the story about the best clothes and the pipe, but that gold pen is a little too good to be true.

The Trenton Gazette learns that five persons, out of a family of seven, who resided in the Skull Bone neighborhood, have died from eating fish that had been feeding upon caterpillars. We also learn that a cat and two dogs were also eaten by caterpillars and died in less than two hours.

A man working on the farm of Mr. Coward, near Randolph, Tipton county, met a horrible death on the 15th ult. who was killed by a dog, and took his horse from the plow with harness on, mounted him and started to the well, and when he threw him, his feet became entangled in the harness, and he was killed by the dog, and the dog was killed by the man's hand. The dog was killed by the man's hand, and the man was killed by the dog's teeth.

Gen. Alex. W. Campbell.
The name of the above gentleman appears in this issue, as a candidate to represent the 8th District in the next Congress, subject to the action of a Democratic Convention. This district could not confer the honor upon an able or true man, one better qualified to represent all interests, or one that would render more credit to his country than Gen. Campbell. He is a gentleman of learning, of thought and eloquence, and would take rank in Congress with the ablest of that body.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

By reference to our column of announcements, it will be seen that the distinguished gentleman whose name heads this notice, is a candidate for Congress from the 7th District. Gen. Atkins since the war, has had nothing whatever to do with politics, and his elegant, dignified bearing has won commendation from all parties. He is a gentleman of fine ability, enlarged experience, and would make, as he did in the old time, an able representative.

Col. J. B. Killebrew, of Nashville, will deliver an address to the students of Milan College, and citizens of Milan, on the 11th of June, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

The Parish, Ky. Daily News reports in its support of Greeley and Brown. Hear it: "Toss when you see that white hat shine. And the fact is done. And the word along the line, Greeley and Brown."

How said. The Brownsville States, the Shelbyville Rescue and the Hartsville Advertiser, positively declare for Greeley and Brown as candidates. If G. and B. were to find it out, they would be distressed beyond measure. How said.

The editor of the Whig and Tribune seems to have lost all his railroad sense, since the nomination of Greeley and Brown, and wants to fight every body he meets.—Brownsville States.

We are obliged to our neighbor for the admission that we had some sense to lose, and very much regret that we cannot reciprocate the compliment.

The celebrated watering place is again open for the reception of visitors, and presents unequalled attractions. We have known many cases cured by the use of its waters.

This gallant and earnest friend of the South, in his paper, the South-east Home, published at Charlotte, N. C., is for Greeley. He says: "We give today the letter of acceptance of Hon. Horace Greeley to the Republican ticket. There are some expressions, which we would like to see struck out. But on the whole, it is liberal, catholic, frank, generous and manly. We think the Baltimore Convention party long enough to accept it. The party of Greeley will break up the Republican ticket, and the platform upon which he stands. He has come more than half way with extended hands to meet the Southern people, and we can and we can consistently, with our ideas of honor and chivalry, step forward to welcome him."

The strawberry season has not met the anticipations of the early spring, owing to the drought. Several acres have been planted this spring. The fruit crop looks promising. Crops are very late, but are growing fast since the rains. Wheat looks well and promises a yield above average.

Chancery Court began last Monday, Chancellor Summers, presiding. Dr. Jesse Harris is Clerk and Mr. W. H. Clark is Reporter. We will be called on soon to locate our county site, and we expect a lively campaign among the contending sides.

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "honesty, patriotism and prudence of the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention," and the "entire confidence in the National Convention."

The Trenton Gazette emphatically dissent from the resolution recently adopted by the State Convention in Nashville, which expresses the unbounded confidence in the "